CIVIL RIGHTS AND HATE CRIMES INVESTIGATIONS

Protecting our communities begins with understanding, identifying, and effectively investigating crimes driven by bias. The landscape of civil rights and hate crime investigation is complex and evolving. As law enforcement professionals, your role in conducting thorough, compliant, and empathetic investigations is essential to maintaining public trust and ensuring justice for victims.

We are proud to announce a comprehensive training program designed specifically for officers, supervisors and investigators, developed and delivered by leading Massachusetts subject matter experts with extensive, localized experience in the field.
